

Bush FY05 Budget Security & Justice Priorities in Iraq vs. Priorities in America

	Iraq	America
Helping Police, Firefighters Combat Terrorism	$500 million to fund counter-terrorism policing programs in Iraq $50 million for emergency Global Peacekeeping Operations $80 million for disaster assistance	14.7 percent cut ($648 million) in Department of Homeland funding for police, firefighter, emergency personnel 33 percent cut ($246 million) in firefighter assistance grants
Protecting Ports	$150 million for border protection Port of Umm Qasar completely rebuilt	63.2 percent cut ($79 million) to Port Security upgrades
Supporting Police Departments and Law Enforcement Personnel	$76 million for Iraqi Defense Corps training and development $25 million for counter-drug assistance to Iraqi police $200 million for security for judges, prosecutors and courthouses $500 million for facility protection and de-mining $35 million for non proliferation, anti-terrorism and de-mining	87 percent cut ($659 million) to Department of Justice programs to assist local communities in hiring, training and equipping police officers
Combat and Deter Crime with Effective Prevention Programs	$300 million for human rights and civil society programs $50 million for emergency diplomatic and consular programs $39 million in USAID grants for good governance, civil society, conflict management and mitigation, and human rights and transitional justice	43.3 percent cut ($151 million) in Juvenile Justice programs 5.7 percent cut ($22 million) for Violence Against Women Act programs $1.3 billion in eliminated programs, including State Criminal Alien Assistance Program, Edward Byrne grants, and Local Law Enforcement Block Grants